Dear Parents/Guardians,

I hope that you are doing well and have all survived the stormy weekend and like us all here are looking forward to our mid term break on Thursday and Friday. We are all keeping an eye and an ear on government announcements that will see changes to Covid restrictions both in schools and in the wider community from Monday next, the 28th. All changes for schools will be emailed to you in good time. Children and staff members who prefer to continue mask wearing will of course be accommodated. While we welcome the changes we will all take some time to adjust.

Next week starts a new month and we things are getting busy at school.

Hopefully this will continue.
